"Feed a Cold and Starve a Fever."

The maxim heading this article has been of incalculable mischief. It has no foundation in philosophy or experience, and whilst those who practice it may sometimes get well, it will only be because the constitutional strength has been sufficient to cure or throw off the disease, and not because of any virtue in the prescription. What is usually meant by a cold is some obstruction to some one of the vital forces, which throw the excess of humors upon the lungs and respiratory organs, and thereby produces coughing. Coughing is merely a sympton or manifestation of the disease. If the lungs, or bronchia, or any of the air passages are obstructed by an over quantity of blood driven to them from the surface, they will try to relieve themselves by an increased hawking and spitting. If the nasal membranes are the ones effected there will be coryza and sneezing, present, which will gradually merge into a cough and tickling at the root o' the neck, the violence of which is increased as the irritation descends down along the mucuous lining of the bronchial tubes. These affections are called "cold in the head; colds upon the throat and lungs."

There is engorgement of these parts, undoubtedly, and the blood rushes to them in undue quantities, producing coughing, sometimes pain, sometimes fever. If the kidneys are weak the cold is said to have settled on the kidneys. Now the cure in all these cases is easy. It is to remove the obstruction. The greatest medicine known for this purpose, without exception, is DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP. It ought to be hung up in letters of gold in every house that DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP IS A RADICAL CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.

That is, take Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup upon the first approach of a cough or influenza, and the equilibrium of the organization will at once be re-established, the obstruction swept away, and a healthy condition will be established. For common and recent coughs we will warrant Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup to cure; we have known it to cure in cases of months and even years standing, after the disease has resisted all manner of treatment. Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup is based on correct scientific principles, and has established itself by hundreds of cures here in Pittsburgh where it is made. We have known many of our most respectable citizens to recommend it, and say try it, and if it don't cure I will pay for it. Ask for Dr. Keysers's Pectoral Syrup, 140 Wood street. Kelley's Grand North American Prize Concert.

On Saturday evening, the 26th inst., the drawing for prizes, in Kelley's Grand North American Prize Concert, takes place, at the Wabash Avenue Rink. The sale of tickets during the last few weeks has been immense, and the entire number, half a million in all, is nearly exhausted. Those who wish to secure a chance in this enterprise,—one that has never fallen under the suspicions which have at last ruined others of the kind,—will be obliged to speak and act, or write quickly. Mr. Kelley continues to offer the same terms which have been obtained heretofore in the sale of tickets—single tickets $1; five tickets for $4,50 and ten tickets for $9. Of the whole number of tickets (500,000,) every one draws a prize, the highest one being $30,000, and the amount of greenbacks alone to be distributed amounting to $100,000. An extra force of clerks has been put on within the last few weeks and the demand for clerical help is constantly increasing. Orders mailed in any part of the east and north by Thursday night will reach Chicago in time to be filled and mailed before the drawing commences. Persons sending orders will address A. A. Kelley & Company, No. 105 Randolph street, Chicago.—Chicago Times.

FROM NEW YORK.

Aid for the Shipping Interest—Depression in Financial Circles—A Failure at the Stock Exchange—Sale of a Whisky Distillery—Another Embezzlement.

NEW YORK, January 23, 1867.

AID FOR THE SHIPPING INTEREST.

A resolution was introduced in the New York Senate yesterday, that Senators in Congress be instructed, and Representatives requested, to propose and advocate the passage of a bill to exempt from duties and taxation all materials used in the construction of steam and sailing vessels built in the United States, and also to extend the direct aid of the Government toward the establishment of a mail and emigrant steamship line to Europe, to consist of three vessels owned by American citizens.

DEPRESSION OF BUSINESS.

There was an unsettled feeling in the money market towards the close of bank hours to-day, owing to the stock exchange failures, and a heavy decline in stocks. The events of the day induced caution, and collaterals were closely scrutinized. The decline in values at the stock exchange will undoubtedly cause a shifting of loans, but as yet the effect has not been fairly felt. The report that Secretary McCulloch will resign, in case Randall's bill is passed, is not generally credited. The pending impeachment against the President, and continued contraction of the currency, tend to depress business.

ARRIVAL OF THE CUBA.

The Cuba, from Liverpool on the 12th, and Queenstown on the 13th, arrived to-day. No news.

WHISKY DISTILLERY SEIZED AND SOLD.

An illicit whisky distillery seized by the government, and estimated in value at from fifteen to twenty thousand dollars, was knocked off at a private action sale today for one hundred and two dollars, to one of the officers connected with the United States Marshall's office. The sale is said to be nominal, and the property to have been bought in for the government. The auctioneer states that it will be sold again in Wall street, on Friday. No notice of the sale was sent to Collector Shook, under whose auspices the seizure was made, and whose expenses were one hundred and five dollars.

WASHINGTON, January 23, 1867.

THE TARIFF IN THE SENATE.

Mr. Sherman, of Ohio, made a very able speech in the Senate to-day, on the subject of the tariff, and incidentally reviewing the financial condition of the country. He urged that as the Government must raise to meet liabilities accruing during the coming fiscal year, one hundred and forty millions of dollars in gold, it is absurd to talk of cutting down the rates of imposts or free trade, because no tariff to raise this amount can be framed without affording liberal protection to home industry. Last year the tariff gave us $179,000,000 in gold, but it was an exceptional year, and we cannot depend upon the present tariff raising more than $130,000,000 if continued during the next fiscal year.

The tariff will undoubtedly pass the Senate as reported by the Finance Committee, and go to the House for concurrence in the Senate ammendments.

THE NIGHT SESSION.

The attempt in the House to pass Mr. Boutwell's test oath bill under the previous question resulted in a continuous session, mainly occupied by calls of the yeas and nays, up until eight o'clock this morning, when a compromise was effected allowing the minority one hour to debate the bill. The House then took a recess until eleven o'clock, when Mr. Finck, of Ohio, Boyer of Pennsylvania, and Niblack of Indiana, spoke against the bill, and Mr. Boutwell, its author, in support of it. The vote on its passage stood ayes 109; nays 42, Mr. Hale, of New York, and Mr. McRuer, of California, being the only Republicans who voted adversely. The bill was sent to the Senate to-day, and referred to the Judiciary Committee.

THE IMPEACHMENT MOVEMENT.

A prominent Republican member of the House, in recently writing to a friend says, touching the impeachment business: "My opinion is, and has been, it will amount to nothing. All reports that the Committee on the Judiciary having been taking testimony bearing hard on the President, are false. Not a single witness has been examined, and the Committee are proceeding with great caution."

ARMY MATTERS.

Lieut. Col. A. Montgomery has been removed as Chief Quartermaster of the Department of Arkansas, and Brevet Lieut. Col. Pierce ordered to take his place.

Capt. J. F. Rodgers, Military Store Keeper, has been placed on waiting orders by direction of the President.

Brevet Major General Jeff. C. Davis, Colonel of the Twenty-third United States Infantry, is assigned to duty according to brevet rank.

Brevet Brigadier General Alvin C. Gillett has been appointed Assistant Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau for the State of Mississippi.

INCREASED PAY TO CLERKS.

It is said that the Finance Committee have agreed to report a resolution giving clerks and employees of the Government Departments twenty per cent. increase of compensation, irrespective of former legal provisions, and commencing from the first of July last.

LARCENIST ARRESTED.

Leonard Huyck, formerly president of the Merchants' National Bank, was to-day delivered into the custody of the United States Marshall, having been arrested yesterday in New York, on a requisition of the Court of this city. Huyck was indicted, on Monday, for the laeceny on the 2d of April, of thirteen United States bonds, valued at $13,000, the property of D. R. McNeir, in trust for Mrs. Coyle.

NAVAL MATTERS.

The United States steamer Resaca was to leave Pernambuco, on December 17th for the Pacific. The Brooklyn, Pensacola and Wasp were at Monteveido December 5th. The Pensacola being on her way to the Pacific. The Kansas was at Buenos Ayres. The Mohican was at Rio, December 19th, bound to Monteveido.

IN THE SUPREME COURT.

In the Supreme Court to-day, the case of Goodrich & Drow, appellants, vs. City of Chicago, relative to obstructions to navigation, was argued.

The argument was commenced in the case of Campbell, plaintiff in error, vs. City of Kenosha, Wisconsin, in reference to municipal powers.

THE RINDERPEST.

Consul Ewing, in a latter to the State Department, dated Hague, January 1st, says: About the latter part of November, according to the custom of the Netherlands, the cattle were housed for winter, since when the Rinderpest has increased, notwithstanding the effect of the government to arrest its progress. From the 1st to the 16th of December, the numbers of animals attacked exceeded that of the previous week by three hundred. From the 15th the epidemic diminished, the number attacked being 6,073. From the time it made its appearance in the country, to the 15th of December, 80,066 animals died of the disease, and 25,000 were killed. Previous to the outbreak of the epidemic, beef cattle are largely exported to England, but this exportation has since ceased. All efforts to cure the disease have been fruitless, and the government has confined its attention to the infected district, but so far with no success.

COLORADO AND NEBRASKA.

The friends of Colorado expect a veto of the bill admitting that State into the Union. It is probable that Nebraska will share the same fate. The bills are alike, except that in Colorado the Governor elect of the State is to call together the Legislature elected under the Constitution, within sixty days, to act on the condition of admission; and in Nebraska, the Territorial Governor calls the State Legislature together, for a similar purpose, within thirty days. It is the general impression that both bills will be passed over the anticipated veto.

THE NEW ORLEANS INVESTIGATION.

The members of the Reconstruction Committee have been before the New Orleans Riot Investigating Committee. They were summoned for the purpose of giving testimony as to whether the Committee, as the representatives of Congress, or any member individually, gave the members of the Louisiana Convention any assurances or made any pledges that Congress wished the the Convention, which gave rise to the riot, held and would defend and protect it. The testimony given proved that no such pledges were ever given, and no member of the Committee was ever authorized to speak for Congress.

BILLS APPROVED BY THE PRESIDENT.

The President has approved the bill for the meeting of Congress on the fourth of March; also for the appropriation of five hundred thousand dollars for the purchase of the lower portion of City Hall Park, New York.

MR. STEVENS' PLAN.

Mr. Stevens, enabling act for the Southern States, was deferred from consideration to-day, owing to the illness of that gentleman.

A DEMOCRATIC SENATOR FAVORS PROTECTION.

Mr. Reverdy Johnson made an argument in favor of protection to American industry, during the discussion in the Senate today on the tariff bill.

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

The National Democratic Association held a meeting to-night for the purpose of consulting upon the expediency of holding a National Democratic Convention, at no very distant day. Resolutions were adopted recommending the city of New York as the place, and the 21st of May as the time, for the meeting of a National Democratic Convention. Representative Rogers, among others, addressed the meeting.

[From the Herald Correspondence.]

The President's vetoes of the Colorado and Nebraska bills were considered in the Cabinet yesterday, and, it is expected, will be sent to Congress on Wednesday.

The Postmaster General denies the statement in the Cincinnati Gazette, that a contract made by him for $180,000 was corrupt, and that the Contract Clerk refused to sign it. He says the contract was determined by his predecessor, Governor Dennison; that there was no corruption in it, and that the Contract Clerk did not refuse to sign it. In all other respects the statement is correct.

There is no possibility of a reduction of the whisky tax, the Commissioner of Revenue and Secretary of the Treasury being opposed to it.

[From the Tribune Correspondence.]

Assistant Treasurer Van Dyke has had a long interview with the Joint Retrenchment Committee, and made satisfactory explanation of all matters connected with the sale of government gold by him.

A statement made on the floor of the House regarding the Court of Claims, that the Court had decided that the act of Congress allowing persons of color to testify in Courts of the United States, does not apply to that Court, is erroneous. No such point was ever before the Court. What was decided was that the act of Congress did not authorize a party to testify when the United States was the defendant.

[From the World Correspondence.]

The amended tax bill is gradually passing into shape in the Ways and Means Committee. To-day they agreed to exempt one thousand dollars from the income tax.

The Military Committee of the House has agreed to report a bill transferring the Indian Bureau from the Interior to the War Department.

THIRTY-NINTH CONGRESS.

(SECOND SESSION.)

WASHINGTON, January 23, 1867.

SENATE.

Various petitions and memorials were presented.

On motion of Mr. HENDERSON, the Military Committee was instructed to inquire whether, under present legislation, the ten regiments of Missouri State militia mustered into the United States service are entitled to bounty, and if not, as to the expediency of so amending the bounty laws that they be so entitled.

CONVICTS IN PENITENTIARIES.

Mr. HARRIS, from the Judiciary Committee, reported a bill providing that persons confined in State Penitentiaries under sentence of the Federal Courts, who shall conduct themselves so no charge of misconduct can be sustained against them, shall have a deduction of one month in each year made from the term of their service.

SMUGGLING.

Mr. CHANDLER introduced a bill to construe the act of 1866 to prevent smuggling, so that it shall not affect any right of suit or prosecution which may have accrued under any prior act of Congress previous to July 18th, 1866.

HOMESTEAD RIGHT TO SOLDIERS.

Mr. NORTON introduced a bill amendatory of the Homestead Law, providing that in the case of any person who was in the military or naval service at the date of the passage of said act, and who was resident on any public lands, under pre-emption, or upon which bona fide settlement has been made, the period of five year's settlement required by the act shall be estimated from May 20th, 1862. The bill was referred.

MONEY ORDER SYSTEM.

Mr. RAMSEY introduced a bill amendatory to the postal laws, which modifies the fees on postal money orders, viz: Ten cents for an order not exceeding ten dollars; thirteen cents for orders from ten to thirty dollars, and twenty-five cents for an order above thirty dollars. The compensation of the Deputy postmasters for the payment of money orders, is raised to one-fourth of one per cent. Among other provisions, is one for the appointment of a superintendant of foreign mail, in the Post-office Department, at a salary of $3,000; and a superintendant of dead letters, at a salary of $2,000. The bill was referred.

THE HOWARD UNIVERSITY.

Mr. WILSON introduced a bill for the establishment of the Howard University for the education of youths in the District of Columbia. Referred.

THE HOUSE TEST OATH BILL.

The House bill prescribing a test oath for lawyers practising in the United States Courts, was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

LAND TITLE CONFIRMED.

The bill was passed confirming the title of John E. Bouligney, deceased, formerly a member of Congress, to a tract of 75,000 acres of land in Louisiana.

THE TARIFF BILL.

The tariff bill was taken up.

Mr. SPRAGUE moved to amend by increasing the duty on brown linen, duck canvass, padding, &c., to four cents per square yard, and 35 per cent. ad valorem.

Mr. SHERMAN spoke on the general subject of tariff and revenues. He said all the revenue required to be raised in gold must be raised by revenue on imported goods. While we have depreciated currency it would be idle to require domestic duties in gold. It would be in effect, to legalize a currency and then repudiate it. With imported goods it is different; all imported goods are bought with gold; all transactions on imported goods are based on gold, and being the product of a foreign country must be paid for in gold, the only money known to the commerce of the world. The financial policy of the country during the war compels us now to raise a very large amount of money in gold. The interest we now pay upon outstanding gold bonds of the United States, according to the statement of the Secretary, is $82,080,531. By the terms of all outstanding bonds, except compound interest notes, they are convertable into gold bearing bonds at 6 per cent. This conversion must be met within a year or a little more. When they are converted, the amount that will be required in gold to meet the interest obligations of the Government will be $131,353,977. In addition to this there must be raised an amount required to maintain our foreign intercourse, and other liabilities growing out of treaties, &c., which, it is estimated, will amount to $600,000. The aggregate amount of gold necessary for the present fiscal year will be not less than $140,000,000. In addition to this there are bonds which are to be paid in gold, $16,000,000 of which will mature within the next fiscal year. With the necessity for us to raise $140,000,000 a year in gold, it is absurd to talk of a free trade tariff, and it is unnecessary to talk of a protective tariff, because we cannot possibly frame a tariff to raise $140,000,000 in gold, without protecting, to a very large extent, our home industry. To the extent that this amount is levied on articles that may be produced in this country, it operates for protection. The rate of duties to be levied on articles of this kind, under this bill, will not be less than fifty per cent. ad valorem. As it is manifest then that the main object of the tariff bill is to produce $150,000,000, we may very profitably leave the question of production as a matter of detail, because it would be impossible to frame a tariff bill without protection. It is sometimes said that the present tariff bill will produce that amount, because during the last fiscal year it produced $179,000,000. This is not correct. During the last year our importations swelled beyond any former experience in this country, and yielded us a revenue of $178,000,000; but under the very same law the year before, it was only $84,000,000. The cause of this great increase is easily explained. When the war closed the Southern States were depleted of every thing produced by foreign as well as domestic manufacture. Merchants in the North had been letting their stocks get low, and with the sudden fall in gold which followed the close of the war, they imported very largely. We cannot depend for the next fiscal year upon the present tariff bill. It will not raise more than $125,000,000 or $130,000,000. The pending bill proposed an advance in duties of about ten per cent. on manufactures.

Mr. SHERMAN then examined the details of the bill, explaining the motives that actuated the Committee in adopting the different rates established by the bill.

Mr. FESSENDEN opposed the amendment of Mr. Sprague. It would not do to leave the formation of the tariff to the manufacturers. They have too much interest in it, and as it has been said, there is a great deal of human nature in men.

Mr. JOHNSON spoke in favor of the principle of protection as essential to the welfare of the country at the present time.

Mr. Sprague's amendment was disagreed to, as were several others of a similar nature.

Mr. FOSTER moved an amendment reducing the duty on salt, which was rejected.

Adjourned.

HOUSE.

THE ALL NIGHT SESSION.

The House remained in session until eight o'clock this morning, when a recess was taken until eleven.

THE TEST OATH QUESTION.

On re-assembling, Mr. FINCH, of Ohio, made a speech against Boutwell's bill to impose a test oath on Attorneys and Counsellers practising in the Federal Courts.

Messrs. NIBLACK, of Ind., and BOYER, of Penna., followed on the same side.

At one minute before 12, M., the House adjourned, but was immediately called to order for to-day's session.

All dilitory motions were withdrawn, and Mr. BOYER continued his remarks.

Mr. BOUTWELL closed the debate in favor of the bill, and at half-past twelve the vote on the bill was taken. It passed—yeas 109, nays 42.

THE ABSENTEES LAST NIGHT.

By previous order of the House the Sergeant at Arms presented at the bar forty-four members, who are under arrest for being absent without leave yesterday. The House agreed to discharge those who were brought in after the first call, and ordered the others to be discharged on payment of double the usual fees.

Mr. BOUTWELL, from the Judiciary Committee, reported back the House bill to amend the act of March, 1792, declaring that the officer who shall act as President of the United States, in case of vacancies in the offices of President and Vice-President. It provides that, in case of removal by death, resignation or incapacity of both the President and Vice-President, the President of the Senate pro tempore, and in case there shall be no President of the Senate, then the Speaker of the House, and in case there is no Speaker, then the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, and in case there is no Chief Justice, then the oldest commissioned Justice of the Supreme Court shall act as President of the United States until the disability be removed, or a President elected.

The Secretary of State shall, if the Senate and House of Representatives by concurrent resolution so request and direct, forthwith cause notification of vacancies to be made to the Executive of every State, and cause the same to be published at least in one newspaper of every State, requiring electors to be chosen within thirty-four days, preceding the Tuesday after the first Wednesday in December.

It is made the duty of the person discharging the duties and powers of President, if Congress is not in session, to convene Congress immediately.

After some discussion it was ordered that the bill be printed and recommitted.

The Sewickley Prisoner.

Owing to the non attendance of important witnesses summoned from Sewickley by Mayor McCarthy, the hearing appointed to take place yesterday afternoon, in the case of Wm. Lauredermer, charged with rape on the person of Mary Brush, was postponed until to-day. Meantime the prisoner remains securely an inmate of a watchhouse cell, a location with which he has become tolerably familiar during the last five weeks.

We made no mention in our report yesterday morning of the length of time that the prisoner had been locked up in the watch-house. We were, in a manner, bound to secresy, but as the announcement has been made public through the columns of a contemporary, the seal of confidence has been removed, and we are at liberty to state the facts more fully. Nearly two months ago it became known that Laurdermer had taken refuge in the village of Athens, Ohio. Thither, some six weeks since, the person who held the Mayor's warrant for the arrest of Laurdermer, went. He arrived at the place in the night, and a very dark night at that, and proceeded, under difficulties, to seek for and secure his prisoner. The object of his search was in a private house but came out on invitation, and was informed of where his visitor was from and what his errand was. At first, as we stated, he talked of resistance and refused to come. He soon thought better of it, however, and submitted to be handcuffed. All the way, after that, he came quietly and peaceably. He was brought to Pittsburgh on the night of Friday, December 14th, and was privately locked up in one of the watch-house cells, and the division door of the building locked, the prisoner occupying one end of the watch-house entirely alone. There he remained in the strictest secrecy until Tuesday night, when he was removed to one of the cells in the public part of the building.

It is true that "a conversation concerning Laurdermer did take place in a boarding house on Grant street, in the hearing of a boarder," but as the conversation took place some four weeks subsequently to Laurdermer's arrest, he can hardly trace the fact of his incarceration to that. At last the authorities became convinced that the apprehension of the two remaining criminals, for which purpose the arrest of Laurdermer was kept secret, was not being furthered by silence, and yesterday morning we, in common with some of the other papers, reported the case.

In conversation yesterday the prisoner was very reserved and refused to give any information concerning himself. He spoke feelingly of his mother, who has died since his incarceration, and protested his innocence of the imputed crime. He stated that the girl is of bad character, and that, on the night of the alleged rape, he saw her in company with two men. After she left them she came and walked a short distance with him, and that is all he knows concerning her on that night. We hope that now his case will be fully investigated and his guilt or innocence firmly established.

Serious Accident—Pittsburgh and Erie Train Thrown off—Passengers Injured.

The express train going South on the Pittsburgh and Erie Railroad, was thrown off the track at about four o'clock, on Tuesday afternoon about two miles south of Pulaski, and six miles north of New Castle, Lawrence county. The train was behind time and was running faster than usual to recover lost time when it was thrown off the track by a rail which the frost had sprung. Two crowded passenger cars were thrown some ten or fifteen feet down an embankment and completely overturned. Speedy efforts were made and very soon the employees had succeeded in knocking openings into the bottoms of the cars, thus giving the imprisoned passengers an opportunity to extricate themselves. It was found that no one had been killed, although every one had been more or less injured, some of them seriously. The most serious case was that of Dr. C. M. Dake, of Rochester, New York, who was very severely cut about the head, and had his right arm broken, besides receiving several other external injuries. An old gentleman, also received some very bad cuts about the head, and other injuries which are of a dangerous nature. He was insensible for a short time. A lady, apparently forty-five years of age, and a young lady also sustained some severe injuries. A little girl, about eight or nine years of age, received several internal injuries by being crushed. A gentleman, who had been precipitated into the brook, was rescued from drowning by one of the passengers. The brakeman of the train was standing beside the stove when it went over the embankment, and was very badly burned about the face and body. The passengers were removed to a farm house, and subsequently went in a freight train to New Castle, where those who were unable to proceed received medical aid at the Lawrence Hotel.

The Other Side of "A Remarkable History."

Some months ago there was given here an extended account of the marvellous adventures of Louisa Blackman, whose extraordinary statement of the experiences in fleeing from Mormondom, set all the country agog. The story was told as nearly as possible as she told it to her listeners, no comments being made and the readers being left to judge for themselves of its truth or falsity. She told her tale with wonderful candor and exactness, and gave a romance which was worthy of Munchausen, the air of literal truth. That her story was a romance, we are sorry to say, we are fully convinced. Further information, collected since her arrival here, places Louisa in as bad a fix morally, as she is physically. The authorities at Mount Jackson have written that, when Louisa arrived in that locality, she was mounted on a stolen horse, and that she was so closely pursued that she forsook the animal and fled across the field, hiding under the hay stack. The fact of her lying under the stack for the time stated, is admitted, but that is the only part of the story that is endorsed by the Mount Jackson people. The reputation which she gained there, both among medical and unprofessional people, was unquestionably bad, and so far as we can learn, her demeanor while here has not been calculated to give her a better hold on the affections of the people of Pittsburgh.

Recently she has left the Eagle Hotel, on the corner of Ross and Second streets, where she had been staying and in company with two other women from here has established herself at Pine Creek in this county, with what purposes we cannot definitely state. We regret to be obliged to make these statements concerning a person so sadly disabled, and one who, if found deserving, would have commanded so large a share of public sympathy.

The Great Tournament.

Much interest is being manifested throughout the entire country by the Grand National Skating Tournament which has been arranged to take place at the Central Park next week. The prospects are that it will be one of the largest affairs of the kind ever held. On Monday afternoon all the contestants for the prizes will appear. On Tuesday, at two o'clock P. M., the contest for the prizes will commence, and be continued till the following Friday inclusive. The prizes to be contested for are,—to the best gentleman skater $400, and the Champion Gold Medal of America; to the best lady skater $300, and the Champion Gold Medal of America.

The following celebrated skaters from abroad have signified their intention to be present, and participate in the contest: Wm. H. Bishop, the great New York skater; John Meagher, the champion of Canada West; Sellick P. Schofield, of New York; Col. Shuter, of St. Louis; Wm. A. Henry, of Chicago; Capt. Miner, of Detroit, and John Engler, of Jersey City.

Misses Fox, Elliotte and Nellie Deane, of Chicago, and Misses Newton and Miller, of New York, the most celebrated lady skaters in the country, have decided to enter the lists.

The contest will undoubtedly be one of the most intense interest and excitement.

Pittsburgh School of Design.

The importance of extending the great advantages to be derived from the superior course of study in the Pittsburgh School of Design, has induced the Directors to open an evening class for males, where Geometry, Perspective and Drawing for the cast will be given.

The utility of such a class for our artizans and those studying for trades, where an educated eye will invariably raise the status of a workman, cannot be too highly appreciated by the citizens, and we trust many will take advantage of this excellent opportunity. Although the artisan class is mentioned above, it is not by any means intended only for such, but all who require cultivation in art.

Mr. Harper asked to be relieved from serving on the committee having in charge the appropriation provided by the borough for the relief of an old lady who was injured by falling into an excavation. Granted, and Messrs. Dill and Motheral appointed on the committee.

Mr. Dill moved that the Street Commissioner be directed to notify all concerned to place proper guards about all dangerous places in the borough. Carried.

Mr. Harper moved that a committee be appointed to confer with a committee appointed by Allegheny Councils concerning the proper mode of carrying out the wishes of the people as announced at the late election. Carried.

The Death of James Young—Conclusion of the Coroner's Inquest.

The Inquest in the case of James Young, who was burned to death on Sunday morning, was concluded yesterday afternoon at the office of Alderman Butler. Four new witnesses were examined, but no testimony of importance was elicited. The jury returned the following verdict:

"That the said James Young came to his death by being burnt in the building on the corner of Webster and Seventh streets, on January 20th, 1867, and that the fire was the work of an incendiary unknown to the jury."

Michael Scahill, arrested on charge of setting fire to the building, was released on his own recognizance for a hearing, there being no evidence whatever to warrant his longer detention in prison.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 24, 1867.

LEGISLATIVE REFORM.

For many years the greater part of the people of Pennsylvania, of all political parties, have been fully conscious that the most flagrant corruptions were constantly practiced in legislative assemblies at Harrisburg. For a long period scarcely a session has been held in which charges of corruption have not been openly made, and as often by members themselves as by public journals or private individuals. Repeated investigations have been made into the truth of such charges, sometimes in behalf of honesty, but quite as often with a view of shielding the guilty. Some flagrant cases have been disclosed by these investigations, notwithstanding the most strenuous efforts, by persons implicated, to avoid exposure. Solitary rays of light have been sent down into the dark and loathsome abyss, revealing all manner of abominations. Such cases, however, must be classed as rather accidental than otherwise. Bribery, from its very nature is transacted with none present save the buyer and seller. Proof is, consequently, nearly if not quite impossible, unless an exceptional instance is struck. Besides, if a man is base enough to tempt another with a bribe, or vile enough to be tempted by a pecuniary or other mercenary inducement to do what he feels ought not to be done, he will not hesitate at committing perjury to cover his delinquencies. This is why investigations so generally result in nothing. It is not because facts do not exist which ought to be dragged to light, but because so many are interested to have the light shut out and the evil uncorrected. Hence, too, the often recurring decrepancy between the Report of an Investigating Committee and the Popular Instinct. The people know that bribery has been used. A deep consciousness thereof springs from the very depths of their being. They feel a fact whose existence they cannot prove, according to the established rules of evidence. Nor is their case often different from that of the Committee appointed to probe the matter.

This has gone so far that the majority of people have no faith in the honesty of Legislatures. The nearer persons come to such bodies at Harrisburg, and the better their opportunities for judging by what influences the most important matters are controlled the less confidence they have in them. This is a sore calamity. When public trust is shaken in the purity of the source from whence the laws emanate, there must either come speedily a remedy fully adapted to to the case or the law-making power, together with the laws themselves, must fall into general contempt and execration.

In part, this demoralization is owing to neglect in selecting proper persons as legislators. A good many excellent men doubtless, get into the Legislature, but a very large proportion are of the other sort. It cannot be denied that on the whole a lamentable deterioration has occurred, of late years, in the character and qualifications of members of the General Assembly. This is mainly in consequence of the change that has come over the management of parties. Formerly men were sought for places, now men seek places for themselves. Under the old system electors cast about for the men who would most creditably represent them and transact the public business. To seek office was exceptional, and a dishonor. The office, so to speak, went after the man, and urged him to take it. Under the existing system, few men get public positions because they are better qualified than others to fill them. Every aspirant pushes for himself, and often, brass takes precedence of brains. Indeed, in most districts a high-toned man will not stoop to the personal degradations that are requisite to obtain nominations. Here and there only such deference is paid to superior capacities for usefulness that way is fully made for those who possess them. In large centers of population, where great pecuniary interests are multiplied, where the best heads are fully employed in conducting important private affairs, and where divisions of labor are, of necessity most rigidly enforced, the politicians, and of the worst sorts, have political management more exclusively in their hands than elsewhere. The best heads are fully employed, and are imbued with the idea that each man should steadily adhere to his particular calling. Hence the readiness with which they ignore public concerns and allow professional politicians to manage as they please the affairs of the Commonwealth. Nor does there seem to be any reasonable hope that a majority of active business men will take a different and wholesomer view of their civic responsibilities. So far otherwise, the disposition among them to abstain from active participation in the engineering of political parties grows constantly stronger.

In view of this tendency, and of the absolute necessity that some effective check be found to the demoralization of politics, the Chambersburg Repository urges the amendment of the State Constitution, so as to provide,

"1. That the Senate shall consist of one hundred members, to be chosen by single districts.

"2. That the House of Representatives shall consist of four hundred members, each to be elected in a single district.

"3. That all legislation relating to corporation interests shall be by general laws, and that no special charters or corporate privileges whatever shall be granted but by the courts.

"4. That there shall be no special appropriation of money from the treasury to claims except upon a judicial finding.

"5. That the members of the legislature shall be paid five dollars per day, for the period of sixty days; and be prohibited from appropriating to themselves any additional sum for protracted sessions, or for extra or adjourned sessions beyond sixty in the year.

"6. That no subordinate officer shall be appointed in either branch, or receive any compensation for services, unless a bill shall have been passed by both branches creating the office and defining its duties.

"7. That no bill of any kind shall pass either branch without receiving a majority of [illegible] on a call of the yeas and nays."

These [illegible] the right direction, but would go far, if adopted, [illegible] consideration. All experience in this country testifies to [illegible] results of large representative assemblies. A whole people cannot [illegible], and hence the nearer the law-making body can be brought to the community, and have business done in an orderly and prompt manner, the greater the security for honesty. It is easy to make a corrupt arrangement with a few, but hard when hundreds are to be embraced. Massachusetts has some seven hundred members of its General Court, and imputations upon the integrity of its proceedings are almost unknown. The numbers are too great to admit facility in forming corrupt rings.

The idea that all legislation in regard to corporations shall be by general laws, and that charters shall be granted exclusively by the Courts is most wholesome. At least three quarters of all the corrupt practices of legislative bodies have their root in granting and amending corporate franchises. Nor is the mischief confined to the members. Private citizens want valuable franchises, or having them want to protect themselves from interference by enterprising neighbors. As the thing is a matter of money with them, they are often not slow in making it a matter of money with members. Men of the highest positions in social and church life, have not hesitated, do not hesitate, thus to barter their own honesty and debauch legislation. It is altogether well to have the temptation put out of the way.

We have not time to dwell at large on the other specifications; but while of less moment than the others, they will each be found useful. No valid objection can be raised to giving all of them a trial.

—The Repository proposes a summary method for introducing and carrying these amendments. It says:

"Let the people demand a Convention. The Legislature can authorize a vote in June next, adjourn to meet after the returns are officially received, and provide for choosing delegates to the Convention at the regular election in October."

Doubtless, the people are complete masters of their institutions, and may make them what they will, and by what means shall seem good unto them. But this is not the way of making amendments provided by the Constitution. The instrument decrees that any Legislature may propose amendments; that three months notice shall be given the people of such proposal prior to the succeeding election; and upon the next Legislature concurring in the proposed changes, the amendments shall go to a vote of the people, upon like notice; but that amendments "shall not be submitted to the people oftener than once in five years." The election which decided the last amendment was held on the first Tuesday of August, 1864; and voting on a fresh amendment will not be constitutional before the first Tuesday of August, 1869.

If a Constitutional Convention shall be held there is no way of limiting its action to one topic, or to a definite list of topics. Its power will cover the whole instrument; and other matters, including the election of Judges and the right of the blacks to vote, will certainly be brought forward. To a general revision of the Constitution we are not averse, but, it is well to consider what would come of such a movement before entering upon it.

BALTIMORE AND OHIO RAILROAD COMPANY.

The President of this Company states that since September 20th, 1865, eighty miles of first class second track has been built and is in use; that a large amount of grading and other work has been done east of Piedmont, with a view to double tracking that portion; that tunnels have been enlarged with the same object in view; and that at the Point of Rocks a tunnel 800 feet in length, avoiding contact with the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, will be finished by August next. Twelve first-class iron bridges have been built, of an aggregate length of 3,475 feet.

He expresses a hope that the appeal taken from the decision of the Circuit Court of the United States at Williamsport, declaring the Act of the Pennsylvania Legislature repealing the Connellsville Railroad charter to be in operative and void, may be heard by the Supreme Court at an early day, even if out of its order, in consequence of the national importance of the completion of the work. He farther mentions, that pending the litigation before the United States Courts proceeding by quo warranto was instituted in the State Courts of Pennsylvania, and have not yet been brought to a conclusion.

Meanwhile the work on the road has been gradually pushed forward, and the heaviest portion of it—the Sand Patch tunnel through the Allegheny Mountains—well advanced towards completion.

But for the delays caused by litigation the direct communication by rail between Baltimore and Pittsburgh, he avers, would now be in actual operation.

NEWSPAPERS ON RAILROADS.

H. C. LORD, Esq., President of the Indianapolis and Cincinnati Railroad Company, has issued an order requiring the news agents on the trains on that road, and also on the Indianapolis and Lafayette Road to sell the daily papers at five cents per copy. The publishers of five cent newspapers are delighted with this rule, and commend it to general adoption. Those of us who make three or two cent papers do not believe the rule is fair, because it does not cover the whole case. If it is inequitable to sell a five cent paper above its price, it is just as wrong to sell a three cent paper above its price. What railroad managers ought to do, in the premises, is to insist that the different papers shall be sold on trains and at depots at the regular rates established by their respective publishers. That is precisely what the five cent newspaper men do not want to have done. They want five cent papers sold at their value, and three cent papers sold at two-fifths above their value; but this arrangement tends to give them an exclusive market. When railroad men regulate this matter on their respective properties—and they always should regulate it—they should make the rule so to allow and encourage fair competition among newspapers.

FOR months past there has been much indefinite talk about impeaching the President. The House Committee has commenced an earnest investigation of his conduct. If he has done no wrong ot sufficient magnitude to justify his arraignment, he will have the benefit of a vindication that shall be final. If he has abused the powers entrusted to him, to such a degree as to call for impeachment, Congress need have no fears but the country will sustain it in proceeding against him. No elevation of a wrongdoer ought to be so high as to screen him from responsibility.

—WHEN a journal holds an even balance between factions and factionists it is liable to be misunderstood. The Schuylkill Journal thinks we are hostile to General CAMERON. That is one view. The Harrisburg Telegraph finds us so favorable to that gentleman it copies our defence of him into its editorial columns, as hearty enough to pass for original there. This is the other view. Hence we conclude we have fulfilled our purpose to do equal and exact justice all round.

THE SUPREME COURT.

The bill reported by Mr. THOMAS WILLIAMS from the Judiciary Committee, in relation to proceedings in the Supreme Court of the United States, is regarded throughout the country as one of very great importance. The fundamental idea of the bill was broached, some weeks ago, by two or more Illinois journals, and was soon taken into consideration at Washington. This idea is that a concurrence of all the Judges shall be requisite to a binding decision. No question exists as to the power of Congress to regulate proceedings in the exercise of the appellate jurisdiction of the Court; but it is not likely public opinion will sanction the rule now proposed, at least, as applicable to all classes of cases. It would seem eminently proper in determing whether a given matter is constitutional or not, that more than a bare majority of the Judges should concur. Indeed, but for partizan prejudices, it would hardly be held excessive that such a decision should be unanimous. The rules of law compel a jury of twelve men to absolutely concur in a finding, even in the most trivial cases, in order to validity. In so grave a matter as determining a point of the Constitution it can, in sober reason, hardly be accounted excessive to require the Judges to be of one mind. In lesser matters—in ordinary cases of litigation between private parties—this would not appear to be so necessary.

This may be taken as settled, that the loyal people of the nation demand protection against the usurpations of the Supreme bench, in making the Constitution what a majority of the Judges see fit to have it. The people will not be baffled in the great work of reconstructing the government, by the obstinacy, or caprice, or incivism of a majority of the Judges.

MR. POMEROY, editor of the La Crosse Democrat, said:

"He (Morrissey) never stole spoons, watches and jewels for his wife as Ben Butler has. When he fought with Heenan he did not pick his pockets, or insult his sister or mother, as the Brute Butler insulted the women of the South, who were robbed by his orders and ravished by negroes and drunken whites with his consent, in retaliation for expressing their disgust at his venalities."

Hereupon, General Butler brought suit for libel, claiming damages to the amount of $100,000. It is certainly well when editors take such liberties with the reputations of men that they should have an opportunity of showing how much they can prove. If they cannot make good their charges, few punishments would be out of proportion to their offense.

THE question of extending political rights to the blacks is before the Ohio Legislature, and creates great squirming among members who are simply politicians. The Republicans will gain much for themselves, besides performing an excellent service for humanity, by disregarding antiquated prejudices, and declaring promptly and decisively for the equal rights of all men.

READ THE CERTIFICATE OF REV. R. T. FLUALIN.

To DR. HOSTETTER—Dear Sir:—This is to certify that I was taken with the dyspepsia a year ago last March, and for a period of eight months was one of the most miserable creatures you ever beheld, not being able either to eat, drink or sleep, and was compelled to keep the door incessantly. I was nearly deprived of my reason, and hope had entirely left me, all the efforts made for my recovery having proved fruitless. By the first of November, 1865, I had become so weak and feeble that I could scarcely stand alone, and, to all appearance, would soon die. At this time (having read your advertisement,) my wife prevailed upon me to try your Bitters. A bottle was procured, and, strange to say, I soon commenced recovering. I have taken four bottles, and am enjoying as good health now as could be expected for one of my age (about sixty years). I have no doubt that it was your Bitters alone, under Divine Providence, that effected this wonderful cure.

Pittsburgh, January 15th, 1867.

Having sold our entire Brewery, Malting and Hop Business to Messrs. PIER, DANNALS & CO., we would request from our friends a continuance of the liberally bestowed upon us during the number of years we were in the business. We have no hesitation in recommending the new firm, as from their long experience in the business we have no doubt but they will maintain the excellence of our Ale.

D. FAWCETT & CO.

Refering to the above, we would inform the public that we shall endeavor to merit a continuance of the liberal patronage enjoyed by the late firm of D. Fawcett & Co., and from our experience in the business, can safely say that we will be able to give entire satisfaction to those who may favor us with their orders.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 24, 1867.

Edicts of the Empress.

The Empress Fashion has for ladies in waiting, all women who can buy a new dress or "make over" an old one. For the benefit of our lady readers—and they are very many—we give below the latest laws which have received the royal stamp of the fickle sovereign. We copy from Le Follet:

The weather having at last become more seasonable, the winter materials decided upon and exhibited for the last two months are now brought into requisition. We are very glad to welcome the return of brocaded silks; there is hardly any dress more suitable for an elderly lady. Young ones have not yet adopted it, except for tunics or portions of dress.

Satin is also very much in favor for almost all purposes—fall or visiting dresses, mantles and bonnets. There is scarcely any fabric so elegant or essentially "grande dame." Velvet—that used to be reserved for toilets of ceremony—is now making its appearance for all kinds of occasions; and the velveteen, so fashionable last autumn, is rapidly giving way to plush and poplin.

The plush dress and mantles en suite looks very elegant and seasonable, and requires little or no trimming. The terry-velvet dresses are, in our opinion; more elegant, and decidedly more dressy. The silk or woolen reps are much in use for morning dresses, moires, fayes, pouit-de-soie antiques still keeping much in favor.

Stripes are still in the ascendancy, but are no longer plain as formerly; they are formed by medallions or small patterns. Black is most fashionably worn, but gray and violet seems the favorite colors. Several beautiful shades of blue have appeared. Very little green is seen, excepting for in-door wear. Fur is very much worn as trimming, the species preferred being Astrakhan, sable, chinchilla, martin, miniver and squirrel; the two latter being preferred for very young ladies and children.

Grebe is also in great favor, as are most kinds of feather trimming. Lace is, of course, kept for in-door and evening wear. Grelot and chenille fringes are much used as ornaments; velvets worked with beads or embroidered in floss silk likewise make most elegant additions to a toilette. For evening wear, satins and silks are much worn, but for young ladies who dance, lighter materials are considered preferable—such as gauze, nets, tarlatanes or tulles, worn over silk or satin underskirts. The usual trimmings for these dresses are ruches, beads and flowers.

Many young girls wear foulard tunics and corselets over muslin bodies and skirts. This forms a very pretty, young, and by no means expensive dress. With two or three muslin dresses with low and high bodies, a young lady can make a very nice appearance through the winter evenings, either for demi-toilettes or small dances, as with the addition of a silk or foulard corselet and plastron, the toilette is complete, and can be constantly diversified.

Hardly any alteration worth mentioning has taken place in the form and trimmings of the mantles worn this month. They are still ornamented with small bands of fur, and have long, handsome guides at the back of the neck. The long, hanging sleeves are likely to come into great favor for cloaks, especially if made of velvet or satin.

If the mantle is of velvet or satin, trimmed with fur or feathers, the muff is invariably made to correspond. We do not see many shawls, but those are never worn triangularly as they used to be, but always folded straight like a scarf. We do not consider that at all an elegant fashion; but as the mode, it is our duty to chronicle it.

A few attempts have been made to introduce some very ugly forms for bonnets, but those at present in wear—the "Catalane" and the "Lambelle"—are so very becoming and elegant that we sincerely trust that they will not be replaced.

Crinoline, in spite of all the abuse and prognostications against it, is still worn. The form is very much altered, but the skirt, let it be of what material it may, invariably has a few steels, but only round the bottom. For outdoor wear, with the short dresses, a small, round crinoline is worn, (no lady ever attempts to appear in a short dress without one.) With an in-door or evening dress the crinoline is long behind, and made with a train. Linen collars and cuffs, with medallions of lace, are much worn; very fine tatting is also much in favor for this purpose.

The hats worn are exactly the same as those introduced last month, and are ornamented in the same manner, the materials being generally velvet, felt or beaver.

There is an endless variety of lace and muslin bodies, both high and low, intended to be worn with corselets. Some are exceedingly elegant; none more so than those formed of alternate medallions of lace and satin stitch embroidery.

We have seen several very elegant muslins and lace peplums, also some of the black figured net with lattice work of colored velvet, or black velvet spotted with colored beads. One peplum basque shown to us was formed of black velvet, about four inches deep, plaited so as to form five points, that in the middle of the back being much the deepest. These points were surrounded on both sides with white lace, and ornamented with small medallions.

Gloves for evening wear are invariably long, and there has been some slight idea of introducing long black lace mittens for young ladies' demi-toilet wear. We wish this fashion success, but do not think it will take any stand until spring, for which season it is decidedly more suitable. The coiffure of flowers, brooch, back-comb and ear rings, worn to correspond with the dress, are exceedingly pretty when worn by young ladies, but are totally unsuitable after a certain age.

A Talented Youth.

The Meadville Republican has a communication from Sayertown, in which the following story is told: Jo. is a boy of good appetite, ordinary intelligence, honest and industrious, and will attend punctually to all of his duties, unless rats come in his way; against these pests he entertains a decided antipathy and has a peculiar faculty of destroying them. He invents and constructs queer looking traps, wherein he places tempting baits, that lure them on to destruction, but he catches them with his hands as quickly and as readily as can any rat terrier; the rat that escapes after Jo. gets his eye on it must be an exceedingly active one, for he darts for them with astonishing rapidity, and nine times out of ten will catch them; and what is still more singular, he will take them in the dark almost as well as in daylight. I never knew him to get bitten but once, and then he caught two large rats at one time, one in each hand, and one of them succeeded in biting his finger severely. The rats had a fair show. They were on an open barn floor, flanked on either side with mows full of grain; one of them was running upon the floor, the other in the act of ascending the wall, when Jo. made a dive at them and caught and killed both of them at once. He has been known to kill a number in quick succession with such rapidity that an observer would hardly know what the boy was at until the rats were slain. If at all suspicious that there are any rats about, his senses are all on the alert instantly. He watches for them, listens for them, and he smells for them, and will detect their presence when all the cats about the establishment are unconscious of such fact; their lightest footfall, most indistinct nibble, and the slightest wallop of their tails upon the floor, are to him perfectly audible.

Burglary.

The Reading Journal says: On Friday last, the Hardware Store of John McKnight corner of 3d and Penn, was burglariously entered about midnight, and a large amount of cutlery, valued at $500, was stolen. The burglars entered the store from Third street by lifting a shutter from its hinges that has not been opened for several years. The shelving which ranged along the window, was removed and placed on the counter. This done, the rest was a job of comparative ease. The safe and the money drawers having been unmolested, it is supposed that the robbers were disturbed in their operations by the footsteps of a citizen who was on his way homeward.

This state of insecurity on the part of our business men and citizens in private life should not be allowed longer to continue. The idea of not being able to retire for the night without feeling that your stores and dwellings may be robbed before the following morning, is horrible indeed. That there are some notorious burglars in our midst is evident from the boldness of many of the operations. Indeed, it was only a few days ago that we were informed of the passage on the cars, through this city, of a police officer from New York City, who, on his way north to make an arrest, when at the New Depot, stepped on the platform of the cars, and called some by stander, remarking to him that he saw in the crowd there assembled, three of the most notorious burglars of New York City. Before he could apprise the by-standers of the identity of these house-breakers, the train started, and the citizen was no wiser than he was before.

Accident.—We take the following from the Steubenville Herald: The Road Master's train on the Pittsburgh, Columbus and Cincinnati Railroad—(Panhandle)—broke an axletree, near Bulger, Pa., this morning, throwing the "caboose" over a high bank, killing a laboring man on the train, by the name of Thomas Burns, and injuring several several others. The Road Master, Mr. Whitez, was pretty badly stunned, but not seriously injured.

A Difference.—The Grand Jury of Lebanon County recommend the immediate enlargement of their jail and almshouse.

—A correspondent from Lower Heidelberg, says: "Our directors have erected one new school house and refitted another—have advanced the salaries from $28 to $35—and increased the term from eighty to one hundred and ten days. Well done for Heidelberg.

The Burning Well Again.—The celebrated "burning well," about nine miles below Franklin, is again on fire, the flames frequently shooting up to a height of one hundred feet.

Alas, Poor Benedicts!—At Greencastle, O., suits have been brought against the husbands of seventy women, [illegible] liquor stores [illegible] ago.

Going into Better Business.—The Columbus Journal says one of the ablest and most active Democratic members of the Legislature is going upon the stage.

A Broken Spoon.—A boy named John Spoon broke his leg in two places while sliding on the ice on the Manatawny Creek.

Death of a Clergyman.—Rev. Father Wallmeyer, pastor of St. Paul's Catholic Church at Reading, died last week.

More Odd Fellows.—There are more Odd Fellows in Pennsylvania than in any other State.

The Crosby Opera House Lottery.

The gay and festive sports of Chicago had quite a rich time over the drawing of the Opera House. They were in doubt for a long time of the real owner (not yet made clear) of the lucky "58,600" ticket, and conspired to make numerous parties believe that they were the lucky parties. First they made a raid upon a hack-driver, and had him almost crazy in the belief that he was the owner of the first prize. He, of course, stood the "licker" for the crowd until his pocket-book was exhausted of its funds and he could realize no more upon the strength of being the reputed owner of such wealth. Next they visited John Meyer's saloon—the identical beer vender who was credited here with the good luck—and, in his absence, told the bar-keeper that John had drawn the Opera House. The faithful attendant of John's interests, elated with his employer's good fortune, set up the beer to all who called, and asked for no pay, as the establishment could certainly stand a free blow over the head of the drawing. John Myers, who had been out, returned and found his saloon crowded with bummers, who were engaged in pouring down his good lager beer as fast as the bar-tender could draw it. He at once proclaimed that he held no ticket in "ter tammed lottery," and shut down upon the free blow of the Teutonic beverage. He lost seven kegs of beer through the verdant bar keeper's liberality. Other scenes of like character transpired in the city, and some very ridiculous stories are told. The true owner of the lucky ticket is supposed to be a worthy miller named A. H. Lee, of Prairie du Rocher, Illinois. He is poor, and the prize could not have fallen to a more worthy individual. From the tone of the Chicago papers we infer that all was transacted fairly, and that no cheating was done, every ticket holder having a fair "shake" for the coveted prize. Although a great number of tickets were sold in Pittsburgh, we believe not a single prize was drawn by any of our citizens. The best way to get rich is in slow economy, and the sooner people learn this the better.

Soldiers' League Meeting.

A regular meeting of the Allegheny Soldier's League was held at their Hall, on Water street, last night. New members were presented and obligated. The vacancy in the office of Recording Secretary was filled by the election of John G. Brown, Esq., to that position. The Finance Committee through their chairman, read the report of the Treasurer of the Murdoch Dramatic Association, showing that the sum of twenty-five dollars was realized by the recent benefit given by that society. The thanks of the League were tendered to the Association for the compliment. The committee on procuring a Hall for the Library and Reading Room, reported that they had secured a room for the purpose indicated. A committee was appointed to furnish the same, and put it in necessary order for the meetings of the League. The Library Committee report that their labors are being rewarded as satisfactorily as could be expected. A general discussion ensued on some routine business, after which the League adjourned to meet on Tuesday next.

Forestalling the Market.—On Tuesday Charles Jericho, proprietor of a grocery store in Birmingham, was brought before the Mayor and fined five dollars for buying poultry during market hours, with a view of selling the same again.

Yesterday morning William H. Nantker, proprietor of a store in Birmingham, was arrested and taken before the Mayor, by officer Thomas, charged with having bought five dressed hogs in the Diamond Square during market hours. Nantker was fined five dollars and costs.

Ladies' Monument Association.—The Ladies, Soldiers' Monument Association, of Allegheny county, meets this afternoon, at three o'clock, in the City Council Chamber, for the transaction of important business, and it is desirable that there should be a full attendance. Now that the patriotic ladies of the county have put their shoulder to the wheel there should be no back step taken. With a continuance of the energy which has characterized the initiatory steps in this matter, success is certain.

The Titusville "Herald" says: The Pittsburgh GAZETTE has been enlarged by the addition of four columns. Its advertising receipts for the last quarter amounted to nearly $18,000. The GAZETTE is the oldest newspaper in Western Pennsylvania, as it certainly is one of the ablest and most enterprising in these days of newspaper competition and excellence.

Good for Wool.—Hear this Pennsylvanians: Dr. Townsend, of Ohio, thinks one of the best, if not the best wool growing regions in America, is the country adjoining the Allegheny range of mountains.

MY POLITICAL PLATFORM.

Kind friends and patrons all, I ask your close attention,
I have a stock of Boots on hand, thousands of different sizes,
Which I can well afford to sell at the very lowest prices.
A lot of Boots and Shoes, of French and German leather,
Which none would be afraid to wear, in coldest winter weather.
My Ladies' Boots are of the best, it really is surprising,
That I can sell so very cheap, while prices still are rising.
My stock is of the very best the trade did ever produce,
My Shoes are far the cheapest since the prices I did reduce.
Then seek your own advantage and come to me and buy,
And when my stock is all sold out I'll get a fresh supply.
Since money is so plenty now, and greenbacks in good credit,
Do come and buy some bran new Shoes, you never will regret it.
Cold winter now is at the door, when the old year has ended,
And if your shoes are sprung a leak, do come and get them mended.
Then call at the popular Shoe Palace Emporium, Nos. 25 and 28 Fifth street.

Also, 12 acres adjoining the above, unimproved, for sale low. This piece is also all underlaid with coal.

The above three pieces of property lie between the Little Saw Mill Run and Steubenville Railroads, and the coal can be reached easily from either road. The coal alone is worth all that is asked for the entire property.

The improvements are a two-story Frame House with five rooms and good cellar, a Frame Bank Barn, 40x60 feet, and other out-buildings. There is on the place a good Young Apple Orchard: 120 acres cleared, balance in good timber: fencing generally good, well watered; underlaid with coal and limestone; convenient to churches, mills, schools and blacksmith shops, together with the personal property such as stock, implements, grain in the ground, &c. Possession given immediately.

Maj. Jno. W. Walker, of Erie, foreman.

W. W. Barr, Clarion.	Jas. Kellly, Allegheny

G. W. Gunnison, Erie
Josiah King, Allegheny.	Jas. Fawcett, Birmingham.
J. T. Hoskinson, Erie.	Wm. Kittel, Cambria.

On Wednesday the following bills were returned:

United States vs. George H. Williams; indictment passing counterfeit fractional currency; true bill.

United States vs. Thomas Davis; indictment passing counterfeit fractional currency; true bill.

United States vs. W. D. Hunt and Thomas Hughes; indictment passing counterfeit fractional currency; ignored as to Hunt and true bill as to Hughes. Hunt was called, but did not answer.

A jury was sworn in the case of George H. Williams, and his trial proceeded, District Attorney Carnahan representing the Government, and M. Swartzwelder and J. H. Hampton, Esqs. by the request of the Court appearing for the prisoner. The principal witness was James Wiggins, proprietor of the "El Dorado" tavern, on Water street, where the counterfeit money was alleged to have been passed. The counterfeits were produced and identified as having been presented by the defendant. On cross-examination, Wiggins stated that it was the rule at taverns for barkeepers to pass out the bad money taken in. ["A very dangerous rule," suggested the court.] Officer Seth Wilmot testified that he arrested the accused at East Liverpool, Ohio, and found counterfeit currency on his person, and also in his trunk at the Red Lion Hotel, in this city. Defendant offered Mr. Wilmot fifty dollars if he would destroy the "stuff" found in the trunk.

For the defense Mr. Swartzwelder pointed out defects in the indictment, the description of the counterfeit not corresponding with the notes offered in evidence. The court decided the defects to be fatal, and a nolle pros. being entered the jury were discharged from further consideration of the case. The defendant was remanded to prison to await the finding of a new bill.

The case of the United States vs. Thomas Davis was called. The indictment charged the passing of a counterfeit twenty dollar note of the Fourth National Bank of Philadelphia, upon Charles Moritzon, storekeeper, of East Birmingham, on the 22d of December last. Suspecting the character of the note, when handed to him by defendant, having received one of the same kind on the day previous, Mr. Moritzon gave it to his wife, directing her to get change for it, but, reckoning her to an adjoining room, told her to go for a constable. Before her return, the defendant left the store, not taking with him a turkey, for which he had tendered the note in payment, or waiting for his change. A magistrate's office (Justice Ammon's) is on the opposite side of Carson street from Mr. Moritzon's store, and looking out of the window the accused saw Mrs. M. going there, and hence his rather hasty departure. The defendant resided with his mother in the immediate neighborhood. The note was produced in evidence and identified. The defendant, when arrested, stated that he did not know it was counterfeit, and that he had received it from a man named Gust Lambert, in payment for services rendered. The case progressed as far as the defense, when the Court adjourned until Thursday. Mr. Swartzwelder is retained as counsel by the defendant, who is under bail.

District Court.

Before Hon. Moses Hampton.

In the case of W. C. Dunn vs. Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad Company, the jury, on Wednesday morning, returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $358 28.

Huntingdon M. May vs. James M. Burns. Action to recover for 83,980 feet of lumber in water, sold to defendant at $23 per M., less a credit of $582.54. Defendant claimed that the bill rendered was erroneous in the number of feet of lumber specified, and also in the item of interest, as by the custom of trade no interest is chargeable on bills until after six months from delivery of goods. Verdict in favor of plaintiff for $1,424.93, the full amount claimed, with interest.

Day & Hayden vs. Administrators of Charles Keiffer, deceased. Action to recover $2,025.26, alleged by plaintiffs to be justly due them from the estate, for goods sold, money paid, &c., as per bill. Among the items is one charging "office rent, at $400, four years, $1600," which the defence claimed to be exorbitant. On trial at adjournment.

Court of Common Pleas.

Before Hon. Thomas Mellon.

The case of H. M. Bole & Co. vs. Frederick Bausman, occupied the attention of the Court during the whole of Wednesday, and was not concluded at adjournment.

Boxed.

We take the following from the Reading Journal: "One evening last week a small party of ladies and gentlemen met at a public house, a short distance from this place, to enjoy themselves with a pleasant dance. About 10 o'clock a young man, well dressed, passed into the room and made himself very friendly—especially to the ladies, as he was a good dancer. After enjoying himself for a time, he invited one of the young men to drink with him, and the invitation was accepted. While at the bar the stranger said he had a curiosity in the barn which he would show the young man, provided he accompanied him thereto. Upon entering the barn and not finding it, the stranger remarked that some one must have put it away; so they commenced searching for it in the dark, the stranger saying the curiosity was a small box. After looking for some time they gave up in despair, and agreed to return to the house. The stranger, however, told the young man to go first, and he would follow soon after. The young man returned to the house—the stranger did not—and in a short time it was discovered that a valuable gold watch and chain were missing. The stranger has not been heard from since, nor has the box ever been discovered."

Personal.

Alderman John A. Strain is expected to return this evening from his bridal tour, and will be ready for business to-morrow morning. Let all interested take notice.

We regret exceedingly to state that Captain W. Lewis, of the night watch is lying at his home very sick indeed, with typhoid fever. Capt. Lewis has been very ill for several days. We hope soon to record his convalescence.

John H. Hare, Esq., Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, is rapidly convalescing from the severe attack of remittent fever with which he has been prostrated for some time past. He will soon be able to resume his duties.

Surety of the Peace.—Thomas Murray and Richard Baxter, were yesterday committed to jail by Justice Barker, of South Pittsburgh, to await a hearing on a charge of surety of the peace, preferred by Henry Myers. It is alleged that on Tuesday, the accused threatened the life of the deponent. The parties reside in Monongahela Borough.

Assault and Battery.—Franklin J. Kirk yesterday made information before the Mayor, charging Daniel Smith with assault and battery. The two men work together at Craig's brass foundry on Water street in the Third ward. The accused was arrested by officer Moon and held for a hearing.

Another Arrest.—Officer Dressler yesterday arrested Michael Welsh, as an accomplice in the recent robbery of Mr. Aiken's periodical store. He was arrested at Smith's oyster saloon on Third street, and was locked up for a hearing.

The Herald's Jamaica correspondence says: The negroes of St. Thomas, in the East St. David, have refused to turn out and work on the estates except they get increased rates of pay. The proceedings of the Jamaica Commission are producing in these parishes, among the blacks, the greatest amount of hostility towards those in authority.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, Jan. 23, 1867.

The New York stock quotations to-day, as reported by Robinson, McClean & Co., were as follows: Gold, 134⅜; Eighty-one bonds, 107⅞; Five Twenties, old 107⅞; Five Twenties, '65, 106; Five Twenties, new, 104½; Seven Thirties, 104⅛; Ohio, 25; Canton, 45; Quicksilver, 39; Mariposa, 11¼; Western Union Telegraph Co., 45½; Hudson 124, Reading, 101⅞; Michigan Southern, 72¾; Michigan Central, 104; Illinois Central, 112½; Toledo, 120; Chicago & Northwestern, 39⅞; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, 94⅛.

—It is not believed that the schemes proposed for expanding the currency will be passed by Congress, or that anything else will be authorized which might tend to unsettle the money market, disturb values, or shake the stability of the finances. It is reported from Washington that on Saturday Secretary McCulloch had an interview of two hours with the House committee of ways and means, on the gold bill, and that he gave the members of the committee to understand that he was not opposed to making all the sales of gold by the government public. Per contra, the Philadelphia Press is of the opinion that the power of Mr. McCulloch in regard to sales of gold will be restricted. It says:

"It is reported that the prevailing opinion in Washington with regard to the sales of gold by the Treasury Department is that Secretary McCulloch will not be allowed to exercise the same control over the market he has hitherto exercised. The Committee of Ways and Means, to which the subject was referred, has not yet come to a positive decision; but it is thought a report will be made to limit the power of the Secretary. Mr. McCulloch is naturally opposed to any restriction being placed upon him. The power he now possesses is great and full of temptation. If he should be so disposed he can make for himself or his friends millions of dollars by influencing the markets."

—On the tumble last week in the New York stock market, the Financial Chronicle says:

"The flurry in Wall street last evening is variously interpreted. The prevailing opinion is that it is merely speculative and and temporary in its nature, and, if so, the present spasm will probably prove the harbinger of an improvement in general business. At any rate, we do not see any ground for widespread anxiety so long as the excitement is confined in its area to such narrow limits."

—The Cincinnati Commercial has the following well-termed remarks in regard to the circulating of reports derogatory to the standing of business men and business houses, and these same remarks will apply to Pittsburgh as well as to Cincinnati:

"It is not out of place to rebuke a provoking disposition on the part of many people to give currency to gossip that affects injuriously the standing of business men. There is a strange propensity to exaggerate the misfortunes of men when they really do occur, but stranger still is the mean inclination of some to circulate rumors prejudicial to the credit of those who, though pinched in their negotiations, may nevertheless be thoroughly solvent, or at least still clear of protest. No good results to the business community in giving prominence to the misfortunes of a merchant who may be honestly prostrated. On the other hand, it is likely to increase distrust and multiply disasters, and very great harm may be done by giving currency to rumors affecting one's credit, that are not wholly justified by the facts. The most solvent of houses may not be able, at times, to withstand such shocks to its credit, and the more prominent the reputation of the concern may have been, the greater is the disposition to make it a target for mean-spirited, invidious comments."

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, January 23, 1867.

The produce markets present no new features worthy of notice. There is no improvement to note in the demand for any of the articles, and prices have undergone little or no change.

GRAIN—Wheat is quiet and unchanged. Oats dull, with small sales in store at 52 to 53; and at 48 to 50 on track. There is rather more inquiry for Barley, but prices are very irregular, and cannot be quoted correctly. Sale of 1 car prime Ear Corn at 71, and we can report a sale of 1 car of Rye at $1,19; and another at $1,23—but very few buyers at anything over $1,20.

FLOUR—Is quiet and a little dull but unchanged. Good standard Spring Wheat brands, such as "Bartlett," "Ford" and "Crossett," are selling in store at $13,50. Winter Wheat may be quoted at $13,50 to $14, and fancy brands at $16 to $17. Rye Flour is selling at $8, and Buckwheat at $3,50 to $3,75 per cwt.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is quoted at 11½ for Shoulders, and 17 for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is steady at 12½ to 13 for prime kettle rendered, in tierces. Mess Pork is quoted firm at $20½ to $21. Dressed Hogs are selling at 7¼ to 8c.

BUTTER—Is dull, with an unusually large stock for this season of the year, and prices are barely maintained. We continue to quote at 28 to 32, for fair to prime Roll—a round lot could not be sold at these quotations.

EGGS—Fresh packed scarce and in demand—may be quoted firm at 34@35. Pickled Eggs in good supply and dull.

APPLES—Quiet but steady with regular sales, in store, at $3,50 to $4,00 per bbl, for fair to good, and, $4,25 to $4,50 for choice.

POTATOES—Very dull—no demand, except in a retail way. Small sales of Peach Blows, in store, at 90.

MILLFEED—Quiet and unchanged. Sales in store, at $1,90 to $2 for Middlings; $1,20 to $1,25 for Shorts, and $2,20 to $2,25 for Oil Meal.

HAY—We can report sales of two cars, baled, at $19, and 1 do prime Timothy at $22½. Demand light, and market dull.

SEEDS—Flaxseed is in steady demand at $2,50, but little offering. No movement in Clover or Timothy.

BEANS—Coming in more freely, and the market is a shade easier. We now quote prime small white at $2,50 to $2,75 per bushel.

DRIED FRUIT—Quiet and unchanged; small sales at 9 to 10c for Apples, and 16 to 20 for Peaches.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, January 23, 1867.

CRUDE—There was not a single operation in Crude to-day, and while the market is dull and depressed, prices are nominally unchanged. We continue to quote at 7½, packages returned, and 12½, packages included, for "Smith's Ferry," and 8 to 8¼ offered, and 9c asked, for Venango oil, to be delivered in the spring, and, for the present, these may be regarded as the extremes of the market. Stocks outside of the hands of refiners and speculators, very light, and while there is but little offering, there is but little wanted.

REFINED—As in the case of crude, there was not a single operation in bonded oil reported to-day, and the market was dull and heavy with a drooping tendency. The foreign news is very unfavorable, the latest advices quoting at 48 francs in Antwerp and is 4d in Liverpool, showing an important decline in both of these markets. The decline in Europe, as a matter of course, will have a depressing influence on the trade in this country, and buyers will again be asking for further concessions. Free oil is quiet and unchanged. Small sales of standard brands at 43 to 44.

ARRIVALS—The following arrivals of oil were reported to-day—all from Smith's Ferry.

RIVER NEWS.

The weather, if anything, was colder yesterday than on Tuesday, and the prospects for an early resumption of navigation are about as remote as ever. Indeed, it looks at present as if "G. A's." predictions, that our rivers will remain closed until about the first of March, will be realized.

Capt. Doud, of the towboat A. J. Baker, got home the other day, having been absent since last September, during which time he has made four round trips between Louisville and New Orleans. The Baker is now laid up at Louisville.

The Mary Swan, Capt. Swan, bound for Memphis and White river, is reported sunk in the Lower Ohio, near Rockport. She left Louisville Tuesday, with a very light trip—barely twenty tons—and a few passengers, expecting to pick up a trip on the way. The boat was owned by Capt. Swan, who had her insured in Cincinnati, and had been laid up at Shippingport since last summer.

A Cairo telegram, under date of Saturday, says: No further news of the Platte Valley here, except that all her officers are saved but the Steward. The officers are much praised for their intrepid conduct; they were the last to leave the wreck. The shock threw down all the stoves, and the boat would have burned had she not sunk. Estimated loss of life varies from 40 to 70. The Olive Branch and Louisville carried the survivors to their destination free.

We clip the following telegrams from the Cincinnati Commercial of Tuesday:

EVANSVILLE, January 21.—The snow is fourteen inches deep. The ice is packing into the harbor, but is soft. The river is crowded with floating ice with a few large fields. The St. Cloud left suddenly Saturday night and went below here. All the boats now here are fairly shut in. The runaway barges passed down in the ice to-day. Nine men started to cross the river, from the Kentucky side in a skiff, on Sunday night, and got upon a large field of ice in the middle of the river and could not get the skiff off. Four of them left the skiff and made their way across the floating ice to the shore, which they reached three miles below the city. Five staid with the skiff and finally reached shore a half mile above Henderson, after being six hours on the ice. They all reached the city to-day not much the worse for the desperate adventure.

CAIRO, January 13.—There were no arrivals or departures except the Columbus packets, which make connections daily. The Commonwealth is the only boat loading. She intends departing for New Orleans to-morrow, if the ice permits. Enough freight has accumulated here for the South to load several of the largest steamers. The Dance is still aground, but has sustained no damage from the ice. The ice in both rivers is decreasing, and is believed to have gorged above. The river rose two inches.

Says the St. Louis Democrat: Jonathan Warden, who started in a sailboat from this port for Fort Benton in June of last year, is now with his boat, the Lizzie Warden, at Snow Landing, below Miles' Point, three hundred and fifty miles from the starting point, having averaged nearly two miles per day. The boat has been sunk twice, and it took three days to raise her the last time. As Fort Benton is distant from St. Louis 3,175 miles, it may be reasonably expected that Jonathan and his yacht will arrive at her destination in 1,588 days, or fifty-three calander months, or four years and five months, calculating from the starting point last June. It is known, however, that he was unfortunate in not starting early enough in the year, and has had to contend almost constantly with adverse winds.

We clip the following from the Louisville Courier, of Monday:

The fleet of coal flats and barges that were swept away from Cincinnati by the ice have been scattered along to various points, several sinking, and one or two being caught at Madison and other places. During Friday night about ten of the barges reached this point, including a huge model barge belonging to the Parker line. It made the passage of the falls without either crew or pilot, and went on toward the Gulf without delay. A party in skiffs at Portland tried to capture it, but couldn't check its headway, and had to abandon it to its fate. Five of the barges, all laden with coal, were stranded or sunk on the falls, some at the head of the Indian chute, and others along the backbone. If the river falls there is a possibility of saving them. Great fears are entertained for the safety of the coal fleet at the flatboat landing, and those at the tow-head. The ice is said to be gorged to the bottom of the river between the tow-head and the Kentucky shore, its thickness varying from 15 inches to 10 or 12 feet, and if it should break up with a rise it would jeopardize the boats in the bend, if it does not sweep everything at the wharf similar to the disastrous break up of the ice a few years ago. There are eight barges of coal belonging to the Pomeroy Coal Company at the tow-head, together with four boats belonging to coal dealers in the city, and a number of empty barges.

PURE CALIFORNIA WINES.

GURNER & CO.,

No. 80 Cedar St., New York,

Offer for sale these valuable Wines, which are gaining public favor with astonishing rapidity, and whose unprecedented and unrivalled popularity is not without merit. They have only to be fairly tested to give them the preference over all others. As a purifier of blood they excel all other Wines, and the numerous certificates which have voluntarily been tendered from the most eminent physicians, as well as gentlemen in every position in life, is a proof conclusive that these Wines are useful in all cases for which they are recommended.

The following brands are now offered by us. They comprise all the varieties now grown in the State suitable for sale:

WHITE, or HOCK WINE—Of a light straw colored, very delicate and fine flavored.

CLARET—A superior wine for table use.

ANGELICA—A rich and naturally sweet wine, much admired by ladies, and valuable in the sick chamber, as it makes fine wheys and jellies. It is a fine desert wine, and well adapted for Communion purposes.

MUSCATEL—A light colored, highly aromatic wine. Very similar to the celebrated Pokay.

PORT—Deep red color, fine flavor, and in many respects similar to the old wines of Lisbon.

GRAPE BRANDY—The pure distillation of our wine.

WINE BITTERS—A very agreeable tonic and a sure remedy for the diarrhea.

This is one of the most valuable combinations of a useful and an agreeable beverage that has ever been offered to the public. Millions of bottles were sold throughout the North during the last four years, and wherever introduced it has proved a welcome addition to the invalid table, the family circle, and the bachelor's sideboard.

Ladies who have lost strength and appetite, and suffer from nausea, vomiting and vertigo; gentlemen who "don't feel very well" just before breakfast or dinner, whose stomachs are out of order, and whose systems are generally deranged; mothers weaning children and suffering from general debility; children of feeble nature and sour, dyspeptic constitutions; travelers who have occasion to change their water; and all who live in malarious districts and are subject to miasmatic influences, will find it one of the most valuable invigorators that can be taken.

It was used very extensively in 1861, with such general satisfaction that in offering it to the public now we deem it unnecessary to publish any of the many certificates that we have received, testifying in the very strongest terms in its favor. All that we can say is to guarantee that we will pledge ourselves to furnish an article PURE AND UNADULTERATED.

It has been given to little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs with most happy effect. One little girl, in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill has been exhausted, has been entirely restored. She began with but a teaspoonful a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased and she is now well.

CONSUMPTION.

Our son, JAMES PAINTER, some three years ago was afflicted with consumption of the lungs, for which he was discharged from the army. He was examined by four army physicians, who all agreed that he must die with the disease. We brought him to Dr. KEYSER, 140 Wood street, (now 120 Penn street,) who, after sounding his lungs, commenced to treat him, and cured him sound and well. He is now well and has been so for the past three years. Others afflicted in like manner can likewise be cured.

JAMES PAINTER. MARY ANN PAINTER.

Temperanceville, Sept. 5th, 1866.

PITTSBURGH, December 31, 1856.

A GREAT CURE BY DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP. I live in Peebles township, Allegheny county. I had a cough and spitting, which commenced about the 4th of February last, and continued eighteen months. I employed the best physicians in the country, and my cough continued unabated until early in October. At that time I was advised to try your Pectoral Cough Syrup, which I did, and after I had taken one bottle, I was entirely free from the coughing and spitting. I had despaired of ever getting well, and I think that it should be known that this valuable remedy will do for others what it has done in my case. JOHN C. LITTLE.

Witness—R. M. KERR. Peebles township.

A case of five years' standing cured by Dr. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.

PITTSBURGH, January 11, 1859.

DR. KEYSER:—My wife has been afflicted with a cough and difficulty of breathing for five or six years, which, for several years back, had gradually increased in violence. The complaint has been hereditary, and she had been treated by several physicians without any relief. In this state of her case I procured some of your PECTORAL COUGH SYRUP. I bought the first time a fifty cent bottle, which relieved her very much; I then called and got a dollar bottle, which cured her entirely, and she has now no trace of the former disease, except weakness. I would also state that I used the medicine myself to a cold and cough. The medicine cured me by taking one dose. I express my entire satisfaction with the medicine, and you are at liberty to publish this if you desire to do so.

WM. WILSON, Alderman, Fifth Ward.

WHOOPING COUGH.

Below will be found a certificate from Doctor M. DUPUY, one of our most respectable dentists, in regard to Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup. The Pectoral Syrup is also an infallible cure for every form of cough and cold to which we are liable.

PITTSBURGH, June 23, 1862.

DR. KEYSER:—Dear Sir: I have for a long time been opposed to advertised or patent medicines, and it is with reluctance that I recommend any of them. The consideration, however, that I am doing the community a service, induces me to overcome my objections, and to publicly recommend your Pectoral Syrup. We have kept it in our family for the last five or six years and have given it for coughs, such as are produced by colds, &c., with the effect of alleviating or entirely arresting them. During last winter our children were exposed to the infection of whooping cough, and each one of our three boys was attacked with what we believed to be that malady. We administered your syrup liberally, and the result was, that the whooping cough lasted with neither of them more than ten or twelve days. I hope others will at least make a trial of your medicines in such cases, as we have found it beneficial. Yours,

A. DUPUY, No. 21 Wylie street.

HERNIA OR RUPTURE.

It will be observed that we have published for some time past an advertisement of Dr. George H. Keyser, of 140 Wood street, Pittsburgh, Pa., in reference to Trusses and other mechanical appliances for the cure and relief of hernia, rupture, besides various broken-down conditions of the human body which are usually beyond the reach of medication. Dr. Keyser has given this branch of the business great attention for several years past, and we think we are justified in saying that he comprehends it thoroughly. You can get at his store, Shoulder Braces for weak breasts, Elastic Stockings for varicose veins, Pile Props for the cure of Piles, and, in fact, every variety of mechanical appliance. Dr. Keyser is the inventor of a Truss for the radical cure of Hernia or Rupture, so perfect in its parts and so comfortable to the wearer, as to elicit the admiration of all who may need such an appliance.

He has recently been in communication with some of the ablest and most experienced truss surgeons in the United States, and feels satisfied that all those who have been plagued or annoyed with ill-fitting and uncomfortable trusses, can be accommodated by calling at his consulting rooms, No. 120 Penn street, or at his Medicine and Truss Depot, 140 Wood street. Office hours from eight to eleven A. M., and one to four P. M.

DEAFNESS AND THE EAR.

Many persons have rested content in the belief that skin and ear diseases, however troublesome, will wear out of themselves, or that no remedy will avail in effecting a cure; in this way many persons have suffered through half a dozen years, who might easily have been relieved at the onset in as many weeks. So also with regard to the ear, a prejudice has obtained that the ear is too delicate an organ to be treated, or as is often expressed, TAMPERED WITH; hence hundreds have thus remained deaf for the greater part of a lifetime, who might have been greatly relieved, and in many instances, completely restored to their hearing, had proper assistance been timely applied for, as may readily be seen by a perusal of the following certificate. We also take occasion to remark that the testimonial comes from a source close at hand, in Allegheny City, where, upon inquiry, any one interested can satisfy themselves of its truth:

PITTSBURGH, July 18, 1866.

DEAR SIR:—I take pleasure in adding my testimony to that of others in favor of Dr. Keyser's treatment of deafness. My son had been afflicted for five years with deafness produced from scarlet fever. At times he could not hear at all; and could only understand as we would motion to him. His speech had also become affected. Having tried other remedies without receiving any benefit, I applied to Dr. Keyser, and under his treatment he has entirely recovered, and can now hear as well as ever he did.

JOHN D. GARRET, No. 177 Beaver street, Allegheny.
